

PRINCE ALBERT

Copyright 1919 by
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

YOU certainly get yours when you lay your smokecards on the table, call for a tidy red tin or a toppy red bag of Prince Albert and roll a makin' cigarette! You'll want to hire a statistical bureau to keep count of your smokestunts! Why, you never dreamed of the sport that lies awaiting your call in a home rolled cigarette when it's P. A. for the pecking!

Talk about flavor! Man, man, you haven't got the listen of half your smokecareer until you know what rolling 'em with P. A. can do for your contentment! And, back of P. A.'s flavor, and rare fragrance—proofs of Prince Albert's quality—stands our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch! With P. A. your smokesong in a makin' cigarette will outlast any phonograph record you ever heard! Prince Albert is a cinch to roll. It's crimp cut and stays put like a regular pal!

Prince Albert upsets any notion you ever had as to how delightful a jimmy pipe can be! It is the tobacco that has made three men smoke pipes where one was smoked before. It has won men all over the nation to the joys of smoking.

Ann E. Greenwood, Plaintiff

vs.

The unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Aaron Campbell, deceased, and the unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of William D. Graves, deceased, and the unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Mary E. Anthony, deceased.

The State of Missouri to the above named or described defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby notified that an action has been commenced against you in the Circuit Court of the county of Lafayette in the State of Missouri, affecting the title to the following described lands and tenements to-wit: The northeast quarter of the southwest quarter, and the east half of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-eight, township number forty-nine, range number twenty-eight containing one hundred and twenty acres more or less.

That the apparent title or claim of defendants herein to-wit: The unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Aaron Campbell, deceased, in and to said real estate to-wit: The northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-eight in township forty-nine, north of range twenty-eight is on account of and by reason of a patent issued by the United States of America to said Aaron Campbell now deceased for said last above described tract of land, dated the 7th day of September 1838, and that there is no proper conveyance of record made by said Aaron Campbell, his heirs or assigns conveying said real estate and which apparent title of defendants last above named is prejudicial to this plaintiff.

That the apparent title or claim of defendants herein to-wit: The unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of William D. Graves, deceased, in and to said real estate to-wit: The east half of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-eight, township forty-nine, range twenty-eight is on account of a deed of conveyance made to William D. Graves by William E. Roberts and wife dated November 12th, 1853, and recorded in book P No. 1, Page 848 in the office of the recorder of deeds in and for Lafayette County, Missouri, conveying said last above described real estate to said William D. Graves and that there is no proper deed of conveyance of record made by said William D. Graves, his heirs or assigns conveying said real estate and that said apparent title of said defendants the unknown heirs, devisees, etc., of said William D. Graves deceased is prejudicial to this plaintiff.

That the apparent title or claim of defendants herein to-wit: The unknown heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Mary E. Anthony, deceased, in and to said real estate to-wit: The west half of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-eight in township number forty-nine, range twenty-eight, is on account of a deed of conveyance made to Mary E. Anthony now deceased, conveying said last described real estate and made by R. A. H. Hill and wife dated the 13th day of August, 1873, and recorded in book 12 page 335 and that there is no proper deed of conveyance of record made by said Mary E. Anthony now deceased, her heirs or assigns conveying said last above described real estate and that the apparent title of said defendants, the unknown heirs, devisees, etc., of Mary E. Anthony deceased is prejudicial to this plaintiff.

That plaintiff is unable to state the names of defendants herein for the reason same are unknown to her.

Wherefore the premises considered the plaintiff prays the court to try, ascertain and determine the estate, title and interest of the plaintiff and defendants herein, respectively, in and to the real estate aforesaid, and to define and adjudge by its judgment and decree the title or estate and interest of plaintiff and defendants herein severally in and to the aforesaid premises and pray the court to adjudge and decree that plaintiff is the sole owner in fee simple title to such land and real estate and that the defendants nor any of them, do not have any legal right, title, claim or interest thereto or therein and that the fee simple title to said real estate be adjudged and decreed to be in the plaintiff, and that the title to said real estate be vested in said plaintiff by virtue of the statute of 1884 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1909, and for all other things that plaintiff may be entitled to by law in such cases made and provided and for the cost in this behalf expended; which said action is returnable on the first day of the next term of said court to be held at the court house in the City of Lexington in the county and state aforesaid on the 9th day of February, 1920, when and where you may appear and answer or otherwise defend such action; otherwise plaintiff's petition will be taken as confessed, and judgment rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said County of Lafayette, designated by the plaintiff and his attorney of record, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next February term of this Court.

William F. Whitley, Plaintiff

vs.

Mabel P. Whitley, Defendant

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by his attorney and files his petition and affidavit, alleging among other things, that defendant Mabel P. Whitley, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk of said court in vacation as follows: To the said defendant, Mabel P. Whitley, you are hereby notified that the plaintiff has commenced a suit against you in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant and upon the grounds that said defendant wholly disregarded her duties as the wife of plaintiff, has without reasonable cause or any cause whatever absented herself from plaintiff for the space of one whole year and more, next before the filing of the petition herein, and that on May 14th, 1914, defendant committed adultery with Marion Scott, and that plaintiff has not since said date lived with defendant, and that unless said Mabel P. Whitley be and appear at this Court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Lexington, in said County, on the 9th day of February, 1920, next, and on or before the said first day of said term answer or plead to the Petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said County of Lafayette, designated by the plaintiff and his attorney of record, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next February term of this Court.
